If Muhammad can't come to the mountain, bring the mountain to Muhammad.

The past year and a half of jumping in and out of lockdown saw a lot of changes to society and one of the most affected sectors was the arts. Without people heading to the box office, the theatre was struggling and as a result, turned to the ever-growing world of streaming. From Stream.Theatre to Broadway HD, the world of theatre can now be delivered straight to your living room. From An American in Paris, Kinky Boots and Cats to Death of a Salesman, Hamlet and Swan Lake, the world of stage is your oyster. To celebrate this new era of theatre, we've hand-picked our top picks of theatre to feed your love for theatre.

Shakespeare

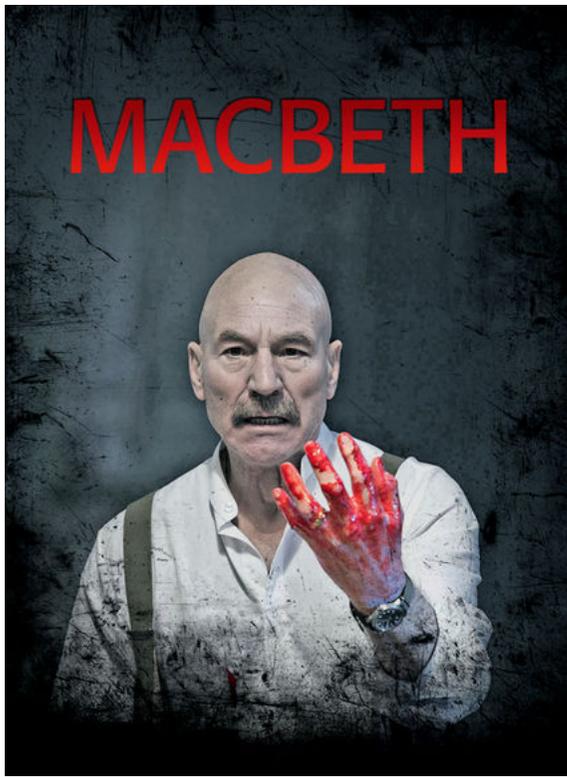

A Midsummers Night's Dream

Deep in the magical forest, a feuding king and queen cross paths with four runaway lovers and a troupe of actors, resulting in tempestuous love triangles, contagious fogs and moonlight revels, surrounded by a roving audience following the action on foot. A Midsummer's Night's Dream is available to rent at National Theatre At Home.

Macbeth

Returning home from battle, the victorious Macbeth meets three witches on the heath. Driven by their disturbing prophecies, he sets out on the path to murder. Featuring Patrick Stewart and Kate Fleetwood, this gripping adaptation relocates the bloody action to a nameless 20th-century netherworld. Macbeth is available at Broadway HD.
