Using iThink Finance For Liposuction Financing

Cosmetic surgery is about celebrating your body and making the changes you want so that you can be the the best version of you. Unfortunately, funding the surgery puts many of us off the life-changing procedure. This is why we are dedicated to helping our customers on their liposuction financing journey and are equally committed to supporting you as you realise your financial ambitions.

Money shouldn't be the prime decider in whether you have cosmetic surgery or not, and thanks to medical loans with iThink Finance, that's no longer an issue. At iThink Finance, we offer liposuction financing of £1000 - £20,000, with a flexible repayment term varying from 12 to 72 months. So whether you have a host of body parts you want to tune up or simply improve a small section, we have the right financial resources to help you achieve your body goals.

How Much Is Liposuction In The UK?

The short answer is that liposuction costs depends on what exactly you want to have done and in what areas. In the UK, liposuction ranges in price from approximately £2,000 to £6,000, depending on where you go and the body areas being treated. So, if you are looking for cheap liposuction or an affordable way to pay for your surgery, look no further than iThink Finance!

Check with the Care Quality Commission \(CQC\) for treatment centres that offer to perform liposuction. All independent clinics and hospitals that provide cosmetic surgery in England are required to register with the CQC. The CQC publishes inspection reports and performance ratings to help people choose care, objectively.

- Credit Cards

You may be able to pay for some or all of your liposuction using credit cards. Most plastic surgeons accept multiple types of credit cards, but you should ask your doctor to discuss your options with you. Read More »

Advantages-

- Easy to use.
- Assuming the card has a reasonable interest rate, this can be an affordable way to pay for the surgery while you maintain or even build your credit.

Disadvantages-

- They can have a high interest rate.
- A large purchase such as cosmetic surgery can tie up your credit line and affect financial options later on, for example, buying a house.

It is not wise to leave a large balance on your credit card for a long time because the interest expense is much higher than with other forms of payment.

- Medical Credit Cards

A medical credit card can be used for medical procedures such as liposuction. They are great for those who want to pay for their cosmetic treatments in affordable monthly instalments, the same

- Savings

If you have saved enough money, you can pay cash for your liposuction, tummy tuck or other plastic surgery procedure. This can be a smart way to go, especially if you don't like the idea of having to pay off credit card debt or loans.

Advantages-

- No interest to pay. Using savings means you never have to worry about being in debt, if your financial situation changes, and how you'll pay back the money.

Disadvantages-

- You leave yourself unprepared for an emergency. Nobody knows what tomorrow holds for us, and having £4000 in your saving account could make the difference for what your future options are.

If using your savings could leave you in a financially insecure position, you should consider taking out liposuction financing with iThink Finance to help pay for your cosmetic treatments. Apply online now and you might even receive the funds into your account the very same day!
