All Hail the Staycation: Top Places to take a Camping and Caravan Break

JULY 1, 2021(HTTPS://WWW.MAJORITY.CO.UK/2021/07/01/)

While international travel is still on hold, the UK offers a wide selection of glorious sites to relax.

With lockdown easing, camping and caravan holidays are in huge demand. Campify claims 2021 will be a record year for campervan rentals. It recorded a 367 per cent booking request increase in February, following on from a 1000 per cent increase last June as the first lockdown was lifted. After a year of being in and out of lockdown, what better way to enjoy a holiday in the great outdoors than with a home on wheels?

Worthy Pastures, Somerset

Famous for the world-renowned Glastonbury festival, Michael and Emily Eavis are transforming the Worthy Farm into a family-friendly camping site for one year only. Over the school holidays, Worthy Pastures will welcome guests back to basics in nature with a range of pre-erected, unfurnished bell tents and scout tents available to hire for 3,4 and 5-night stays. The tranquil campsite will be the pastoral escape everyone needs hosting the best of local food traders, a campsite bar and a village store.

Cornish Tipi Holidays & Camping, Cornwall
