I'm dreaming of the Red Carpet..

It's no secret, your wedding day is the ultimate experience of elegance and glamour- a far cry from your day to day life on the commute. For those of dreaming of the glamazon moments, the first experience of this comes from our exposure on the red carpet. With the cameras flashing, paparazzi screaming their names, the rich and famous are dressed up to the nines in some of the most exquisite designs. Now that Sustainable fashion (<https://www.sanyuktashrestha.com/about/our-story/made-with-ethics/>), is taking its rightful place on the red carpet, we're seeing more of the divinely dressed celebrities taking an eco-friendly approach to fashion. While award season isn't kicking off for a few weeks, London's Film Premiere moment of glory is in full effect. With some of the biggest blockbusters heading to the silver screen in a matter of weeks, we dived into the archives to predict looks we think our style icons would look fabulous in.

Emma Stone

Academy award winner and all around fashion girl, Emma Stone is debuting Maniac on the 13th September and The Favorite on 18th October. Stone has a petite figure, and a whimsical sense of fashion, while always nodding to traditional silhouettes.

LOOK 1: With her fiery red hair, we think our lace insert jumpsuit, Middlemist (https://www.sanyuktashrestha.com/collection_item/middlemist/) from our Enchanted Blooms collection (<https://www.sanyuktashrestha.com/collections/wedding/bridal/enchanted-blooms/>). would look ravishing on her.

LOOK 2: With her love for pastel colours and feminine lace our pink deep neck lace dress, Earth (https://www.sanyuktashrestha.com/collection_item/eartha/) from our Eco Goddess collection (<https://www.sanyuktashrestha.com/collections/wedding/bridal/eco-goddess/>) will define where sexiness meets purity.

Blake Lively

Red carpet starlet, and Mrs Reynolds, Blake Lively is promoting the highly anticipated film, A Simple Favour with Anna Kendrick on 17th September. Lively, known for her fashion risks, and self-styling has never ending legs, a bold attitude and an innovative frame of mind.

For months, Blake Lively's been sharing post after post in her in suits. It's clear as day, the woman loves some world class craftsmanship and skillful tailoring, but she's no stranger to a showing some skin in a seductive neckline. Our Embellished black wide leg suit, Adaline (https://www.sanyuktashrestha.com/collection_item/adaline/) from our Cirque Nouveau collection (<https://www.sanyuktashrestha.com/collections/ready-to-wear/cirque-nouveau/>) is the perfect mix of her latest love of menswear inspired looks with the seductive nature to her red carpet looks we love about her. With her long blonde hair contrasting the strong colour of Sanyukta Shrestha suit, Lively will do doubt have all eyes on her in this.

Viola Davis

Film, theatre and television award -winning actress, Viola Davis is no stranger to the red carpet and she's heading back to her stomping ground on the 10th October to highlight her upcoming film, Widows. Davis has a beautiful marvelous curves, muscular arms and mature view on red carpet looks.

Viola Davis' dark skin tone, makes her perfect for a bold colourful fabric and has favoured yellow in the past. With her womanly curves, our One-sided yellow hemp silk gown, Delphinium (https://www.sanyuktashrestha.com/collection_item/delphinium-2/), from our Cirque Nouveau collection is idyllic for her body. The soft feel of hemp silk on her skin, will keep her glowing as we sit in autumn.

We can't wait to see what these leading ladies choose to wear to their respective film premieres but we're keeping our fingers crossed that a Sanyukta Shrestha (<https://www.sanyuktashrestha.com/>) original will be on their brain!
