Majority Audio launches the Majority MP3 Pro

By Jim O Brien/CEO

APR 23, 2024

Majority, the consumer electronics brand known for its innovative products, provides the audio solution for music lovers on the go, the Majority MP3 Pro.

The Majority MP3 Pro is available in the UK, US, Germany, France, Italy, and Spain from Amazon for £34.95/€39.95/$39.95.

Never again does running errands or housekeeping have to be boring- The MP3 Pro opens a world of opportunity to take 12,000 songs wherever you go. With expandable storage of up to 128GB, listeners can further enjoy up to 36,000 songs to put a music kick into your next workout, commute, or holiday. Working together with the extensive playtime and 4-hour fast charge means with the MP3 Pro your favourite songs do not need to be interrupted.

Designed for the on-the-go music enthusiast, the MP3 Pro features 5.0 Bluetooth connectivity coupled with 67 hours of playtime means listeners can surround themselves with wireless audio for hours whatever the occasion.

Keeping to Majority's tradition to deliver high quality home audio products at an affordable price, the MP3 Pro's integrated speakers prove crystal-clear audio doesn't have to be sacrificed! Simple connect with the included headphones for a private party or pair with external speakers to fill the room with your customised playlist- either way the MP3 Pro has been meticulously engineered for listeners to immerse themselves in every intricate musical note.
