Stop Making Sense Festival – Croatia

In the words of Lana Del Rey are you experiencing Summer Time Sadness? Nostalgic for being on the beach? Tanning up with a bottle of Corona in your hand while moving to dance music? Then this summer you need to battle the queues at Gatwick and get yourself over to Stop Make Sense Festival in the beautiful Croatia's picture perfect Dalmatian Coast.

From July 31st to August 3rd escape from the boringness of everyday life with 18 hours a day of house, techno and electro, funk, soul and disco flawlessly soundtracked by DJs and artists who truly breathes life into this festival. Stop Making Sense brings together the serenity of a beach life and the stimulation of a dance music festival.

Tickets start at £120, Check out Stop Making Sense for more details.

The line up so far includes Anja Schneider, Gerd Janson, Harri & Domenic, Hunee, Kiwi, Leon Vynehall, Mosca, Nick Höppner, Optimo, Psychemagik, Severino, T.Williams, Tiger & Woods (live) and Will Saul.
